SUNDAY
JULY 19, 1953

The Whitney Shepardsons and the Trafford Klotges came for lunch. Afterwards I had a long talk with Whitney about the work he has just undertaken as head of the National Committee for Free Europe. He is going to try to get Harry Labouisse as the European Representative to replace the late Royall Tyler.

The weather is again cool today, fit for autumn clothes, as it has been for the last week.
